To: whom may be concerned

Dear Sir/Madam,

Recently there have been incidences of e-mails purportedly sent by Itelcond using a fake e-mail address with the request to make a payment to a different account than the usual one.

Itelcond did not send this mail, which represent a fraudulent attempt to elicit funds from our customers.

Customers should not provide any information nor send any funds, to any e-mail address or account as indicated in this letter and e-mails.

Many thanks for your attention.
